Julie,

to very odd girl who never tells me who she likes. me on the other hand ends up tellin' every one i see!! if you or later try to embarrass me any more by telling at the people i like i'll kill you. i'll let ya sign my year book when i get. remember all of the stupid things we did in study hall. hope you remember me in your will when you are rich & famous. i'll do the traditional saying - good luck with your life & the guys.

P.S. remember me!! as you can never

DEDICATION

Mr. Matthew Bordack

We, The Class of 1987, would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Matthew Bordack who gave unselfishly of his time in serving as Athletic Director at the Glendale Junior-Senior High School from 1972-1986. While serving as Athletic Director, he maintained a well rounded schedule for both boys and girls. His efforts will be long remembered by those associated with the athletic programs at Glendale.

Eighty Seven

We, the Class of 1987, would like to express our appreciation to the school board, administration, faculty, and support personnel for your unending effort and dedication. You have helped us to achieve our goals and to plan our future.

Respectfully,

Class of 1987

CLASS HISTORY

It's that time again, the time when the history of another graduating class is put to pages. We are The Class of 1987, 96 members strong.

Six short years ago, during the fall of 1981-82, we, The Class of 1987, entered the halls of Glendale High School. It was a time of great confusion when we had to rely on our own resources.

The fall of 1982-83 had arrived and we had one year of skill and experience behind us.

The year of 1983-84 was here. We were Freshmen and the upper classmen let us know it. As Freshmen, we had two main responsibilities: Our first was the selection of class officers. We chose Rich Laing, President; Karen Noel, Vice-President; Launa Clarke, Secretary; Candy Queen, Treasurer; and Jeff Doughty, Representative-at-Large. Our second duty was to pay class dues. With the help of our advisors, Mr. Michael Sciabica and Miss Darla Burket, we were able to purchase our class sweatshirts and to go on our class trip to Harrisburg.

The summer passed all too quickly. It was the year of 1984-85 and we were Sophomores. We realized the need for leadership and organization. We chose Bob Mooney, President; Mark Dudurich, Vice-President; Jeff Doughty, Secretary; Amy Jo Carns, Treasurer; and Scott Spangle, Representative-at-Large. Our advisors, Mr. Jack Burmeister and Miss Clarisse Traveny, assisted us in the buying of our class jackets and our Easter candy campaign.

It was the year 1985-86, our Junior year, which was spent preparing for the golden opportunities that life has to offer. We sat through our first 3 1/2 hour session of SAT's. To head our class was: Jeff Doughty, President; Scott Spangle, Vice-President; Ronda Fink, Secretary; Amy Jo Carns, Treasurer; and Don Johnston, Representative-at-Large. Under the supervision of Mrs. Sally Smith and Mr. Robert Smith, we were able to order our class rings and have a selling campaign of Christmas candy. Our main task was the Junior-Senior prom in which we chose "This Could Be The Night" as the theme to honor our Seniors.

The super Senior Year of 1986-87 had arrived. We kept busy with term papers, graduation announcements, yearbook and newspaper deadlines, SAT's (again), senior portraits, college applications, and letting the student body know who was the boss. Our class officers were Jeff Doughty, President; Don Johnston, Vice-President; John Smith, Secretary; Jodi Krepps, Treasurer; and Bob Mooney, Representative-at-Large. Our advisors were Mr. Richard Burmeister and Mr. Paul Conway, who were by our side for the selling of magazines, Christmas merchandise, and the preparation for our senior class trip.

Throughout our six years at Glendale High School, the class members shared joy and sorrow. We are people who have successfully worked together. No mountain was too high, triumphs were shared, and hardships were faced together. Our lasting friendships will remain without our hearts forever . . . We are, together, The Class of 1987.

Julie
Is a really pretty & nice girl that I've known since I moved here.
Remember all the fun
times and forget
the bad! good luck in your remaining years at G.H.S. and good luck with that special someone.

May all the love and success the world has to offer comes your way.

a Love,
Dianne
